ADVISORY INFORMATION

Weapons of Mass Destruction (Prevention of Proliferation) Act 1995 (the WMD Act) and Military End-Use (MEU) Control

If, at any time, you have reason to believe or suspect that your proposed activities will or may be used in a weapons of mass destruction program, or may be intended for use in military or paramilitary activities, you must advise DECO immediately and not proceed with the activity without first discussing the reason for the belief or suspicion.

Sanctions

You are strongly advised to familiarise yourself with the Australian Government's implementation of sanctions against certain destinations and entities. Information is available on the Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade (DFAT) website at www.dfat.gov.au/sanctions. If sanctions apply, you should seek advice from DFAT before continuing with the proposed activity.

Foreign Import Approval

The government of each foreign country is responsible for import approval to that country. You are responsible for ensuring that any necessary approvals are obtained and the issue of this advice does not in any way indicate whether such approval may or may not be provided.
